

Free media is at the core of democracy. In some countries, the media is controlled by the government. In ours, the media is increasingly being controlled by big business. Neither is free. Please limit ownership to protect the representation of multiple perspectives and opinions.